Important Notes/Key Terms:

Tuition is set annually by SUNY and is historically done in June. These estimated costs are effective as of 02/24/2025. All charges are subject to change following regulations from the state of New York, the State University of New York, and Stony Brook University. Tuition and Fees may vary based on program of study. Please visit the Student Financial Services Website for actual charges.

Full time students will be billed for health insurance through the University. The option to waive this cost will be available by providing proof of coverage to the Student Health Service at Stony Brook University.

Understanding your Costs:

Tuition: Tuition is the cost for the course you are enrolled for in the academic year. The costs on this page are based on a full-time student taking between 12-18 credits per term. A breakdown of the full tuition costs per term can be found on the Student Financial Services website once approved by SUNY and Stony Brook University.

Fees: Broad-Based Fees are generally charged to all enrolled students and are necessary for the University to operate. A breakdown explanation of the fees can be located on the Student Financial Services website.

Housing: Housing costs are based on your choice to reside on campus in one of the dormitory or Apartments. Actual costs will vary based on your room assignment. For rates visit Campus Residences website.

Meal Plan: Meal Plan costs are based on your meal plan of choice when residing on campus. Some commuter students may also request a meal plan. For rates of the meal plan options on campus visit the Meal Plan website.

Please Note: Students will only be charged for Housing if you reside on campus and students will only be charged for a meal plan if on campus or selecting a commuter meal plan.
