

Mia Brett
 119 Arlington Ave.
miabrett@gmail.com

Education

- 2015 A.B.D. Stony Brook University, History, expected defense date August 2020
 Dissertation title: "The Murdered Jewess" and the Problem of Citizenship in the Courtroom in 1876 New York.
- 2011 Completed First Year at CUNY Law School
- 2009 B.A. Barnard College, American Studies
 Thesis title: Trying the Lynchers: An Exploration of the Montana Vigilantes Through Historical Scholarship.

Teaching Experience

- Spring 2020 Black History in the United States: 1865-Present (Adelphi University)
- Spring 2020 The Black Experience in US History, TA (Stony Brook)
- Fall 2019 American People I (SUNY Old Westbury)
 Social Movements (SUNY Old Westbury)
 American History to 1865 (CUNY Queens College)
- Spring 2019 Race and Law in American History (Adelphi)
- Fall 2018 Black History to 1865; The Civil Rights Movement (Adelphi)
- Fall 2017 Race and Law in American History (Adelphi)
- Winter 2017 Gilded Age scandals (Stony Brook)
- Fall 2017 Diseases in American History, TA (Stony Brook)
- Winter 2016 The History of Sexuality and the Law in 20th Century US (online)
- Fall 2015 American History Until 1877, TA (Stony Brook)
- Summer 2015 Adult GED Class for Women's Prison Association
- Spring 2015 American History 1919-Present, TA, (Stony Brook)
- Fall 2014 The Cold War, TA (Stony Brook)
- Spring 2014 Law and History in Early America, TA (Stony Brook)
- Fall 2013 Crime and Criminal Justice in American History, TA (Stony Brook)

Academic Publications

- 2016 Review of The Great New Orleans Kidnapping Case: Race, Law and Justice in the Reconstruction Era by Michael Ross, Law and History Review, volume 34, issue 01, pp. 239-241.
- 2020 Amy Cooper played the damsel in distress. That trope has a troubling history on The Washington Post "Made by History" Blog

Conference Papers

- 2020 AFS Colloquium at Stony Brook University May 7
 "The Citizen Other: Implicit Exclusion and the Changing Role of Citizenship in the Nineteenth Century"
- 2019 History of Punishment and Incarceration at Adelphi February 14
 "Incarcerating Women and the Criminalization of Sexuality in Nineteenth Century United States"

2016 Life and Law in Rural America at Princeton March 25-26, 2016

“Montana Vigilantes and the Legacy of Vigilantism”

2014 Women Across Time at Georgia State March 28, 2014

“The Beautiful Female Murder Victim and the Patriarchal Appropriation of Nineteenth Century Murdered Women”

Social Justice Work

2017 – Present Cofounder of All Women’s Progress Think Tank (formerly All Women’s Progress Party as a political advocacy group)

- Political advocacy dedicated to women and marginalized groups
- Manage social media and online organizing over three social media platforms
- Organized the Win With Women Conference featuring Tarana Burke, Kristen Clarke, Dr. Ibram Kendi, Rebecca Cokley, Ijeoma Oluo, Shannon Watts. Covering topics such as criminal justice reform, disability rights, gun reform, voter suppression, anti-racism, the Me Too Movement, environmental justice
- Led two voting rights actions:
 - Voter Empowerment Day dedicated to empowering voters to overcome voter suppression through education
 - Step Up and Vote dedicated to organizing at HBCUs

2020 Voting Rights Panel at Brentwood Library February 27, 2020

2018 Spoke at Manhattan Young Democrats Feminist Advocacy mini conference for Women’s History Month

2015 Developed Adult GED program for recently paroled women with Women’s Prison Association

Freelance Writing

5 Ethical Companies Delivering Menstrual Products Right Now on Hey Alma

White Men Aren’t Worried About Trump’s Twitter Harassment. That’s Because They’re Rarely His Target. on The Forward

What It’s Like to Be on a White Supremacist List That Targets Jews on Hey Alma

Many in media distort the framing of #MeToo on Women’s Media Center

3 Concrete Ways to Help Families Separated At the Border on Hey Alma

4 Concrete Ways to Fight Anti-Abortion Laws on Hey Alma

I Finally Found a Name for My Father’s Abuse on Dame Magazine

Alice Walker is Antisemitic. Her Work is Still Important on Hey Alma

Why DNA Tests Like Elizabeth Warren’s Help Racists Out on The Independent

The Privilege and Peril of Being a White Jew in America on The Forward

How Voter Suppression Stifles Women’s Right To Vote on Rantt Media