

NYC Field Trip: Friday Afternoon in the Korean Cultural Center

Spend a fascinating Friday afternoon immersed in Korean culture with the Center for Korean Studies (CKS) on a field trip to the Korean Cultural Center (KCC) in Manhattan. Open to Korean Studies minors and Korean language learners at Stony Brook University, this experience includes a one-way coach bus ride and lunch. Discover Korea's rich heritage through a guided tour of the KCC and an enlightening lecture on Korean culture. Plus, participating students may earn extra credit for their class! Don't miss this opportunity to deepen your knowledge and connect with peers who share your passion for Korea.
