ACADEMIC APPOINTMENTS

Associate Professor (2020-Present)

- Department of Linguistics, Stony Brook University

Assistant Professor (2013-2020)

- Department of Linguistics, Stony Brook University

EDUCATION

Ph.D. in Linguistics (2013)

- Cornell University, Ithaca, New York
- Dissertation: Wh-indefinites: Meaning and Prosody
- Advisors: Mats Rooth, John Whitman
- Committee members: Dorit Abusch, John Hale, Michael Wagner

M.A. in Linguistics (2004)

- Seoul National University, Seoul, Korea
- Thesis: A Study of Conditionals in Korean
- Advisor: Chungmin Lee
- Committee members: Seungho Nam, Hyophil Shin

B.S.E. (Cum Laude with honors) in Computer Science and Engineering (2002)

- Seoul National University, Seoul, Korea

GRANTS AND HONORS

SERVICE

Service to the Department

- Ph.D. program director (2024-Present)
- Member, Diversity committee JEDI (Justice, Equity, Diversity, Inclusion) (2020-Present)
- Administrator, Department website (2014-2021)
- Chair, Search committee for a visiting assistant professor in phonetics/speech pathology (2020)
- Member, Search committee for a junior computational linguist (2019)
- Chair, Reconstruction committee for the department website (2018)
- Member, Assessment committee for restructuring TESOL pedagogy courses (2018)
- Member, Search committee for a senior computational linguist (2016)
- Co-director, Computational Linguistics Lab (2013-2018) (with Michael Becker and Thomas Graf)

- Member, Program development committee for the M.A. Program in Computational Linguistics (2013-2018)

Service to the University

- Member, Faculty Rights and Responsibilities Policy Committee (FRRPC) (2022-present)
- Member, Search committee for IDEA (Inclusion, Diversity, Equity & Access) fellows (2022)
- Member, Affirmative Action and Equal Employment Opportunity (AAEEO) Committee (2016-2021)
- Faculty advisor, Graduate Linguistics Society (2014-2019)
- Faculty advisor, Korean Student Association (2019-present)

Service to the Community

- I mentored a local high school student, Jessica Ju, on the computational linguistics project “Using Python to Apply Phonological Rules for the Transcription of Korean” in summer 2014. Jessica was nominated as an Intel Science and Technology Fair semi-finalist for this project.
<http://sb.cc.stonybrook.edu/news/general/150108finalistintel.php> (Stony Brook website)
<http://threevillagecsd.org/News/Story.aspx?id=22789> (Community newspaper)
- I taught a workshop session “the Computation of Language” for high school students at the Center for Science and Mathematics Education (CESAME) at Stony Brook (December 4, 2014).
- I held a session on computational linguistics for high school students on their field trip to Stony Brook University (January 14, 2019).

Service to the Profession

Book Review

- Cambridge University Press, Oxford University Press

Journal Paper Review

OTHER WORK EXPERIENCES

---

Research Assistant

- Automaton Theories of Human Sentence Comprehension (Supervisor: John Hale)
  - Cornell University (2011 Summer - 2011 Fall)
  - Developed a prefix parser module using Mathematica
  - Developed a Japanese minimalist grammar for computational modeling using OCaml
  - Developed a Japanese corpus search tool using PHP
  - Analyzed structural frequencies in Korean and Japanese corpora
- What are the Pieces of Language Knowledge? (Supervisor: John Hale)
  - Cornell University (2010 Spring)
  - Developed a Korean minimalist grammar for computational modeling using OCaml
- Technical Development of Requisite Elements for the Korean Lip-synchronization Software (Supervisor: Hoyoung Lee)
  - Institute of Humanities, Seoul National University (2002 Fall - 2003 Spring)
  - Implemented a text-to-phoneme application using C++

Software Engineer

- CoreLogix, Seoul, Korea (2002 Spring - 2003 Spring)

- Developed a data mining engine for Customer Management Relationship using Java
  - Built components of the website of Korean Air using Visual Basic .NET
- A-Mail, Seoul, Korea (2000 Summer)
  - Developed a webmail solution using C
- Seoda, Seoul, Korea (2000 Winter)
  - Built a commercial website for L'occitane Korea using Perl
